

GETTING FAIR PHARMACARE COVERAGE

Fair PharmaCare (B.C.'s largest drug plan) helps B.C. families pay for eligible prescription drugs, dispensing fees and some medical supplies.

Follow these steps to sign up for Fair PharmaCare

1

Are you signed up for Medical Services Plan (MSP)?

Apply for your MSP and Fair PharmaCare using one form. For more information scan the QR code or Google MSP enrollment.

For further support call 604-683-7151 (Lower Mainland) or 1-800-663-7100 (elsewhere in BC).

No fee for MSP coverage

2

Check to see if you are registered for Fair PharmaCare

Scan the QR code or Google Fair Pharmacare registration status.

You will need your Personal Health Number (PHN), which can be found on your Care Card or on the back of your licence, and income tax information (from 2 years ago).

3

If you are not registered for Fair PharmaCare enroll

Visit gov.bc.ca/ahdc or register by calling 604-683-7151 (Lower Mainland) or 1-800-663-7100 (elsewhere in BC) or scan the QR code.

To register, you need:

- For all family members:
 - Personal Health Number (found on the back of your driver's licence or BC Services Card)
 - Birthdate
- For you and your spouse (if you have one):
 - Social Insurance Number
- Income from the tax return from two years ago for you and your spouse (if applicable), including:
 - Net income (line 23600 of the return)
 - Any income from a Registered Disability Savings Plan (RDSP)(line 12500)

Registered but still can't afford your medication?

Get help paying your Fair PharmaCare deductibles by visiting the Fair PharmaCare site for options, such as income review or options to spread deductible payments or scan the QR code.

Taxes not up to date?

Reach out to free tax clinics in your community, Google free tax clinic or scan the QR Code.

You can claim medication costs on your taxes (out of pocket costs not covered by PharmaCare)

Need help getting ID?

Call the Ministry of Social Development and Poverty Reduction at 1-866-866-0800 or use myselfserve.gov.bc.ca

- They will help you with your taxes
- They will help you get ID

Do you identify as indigenous (First Nations, Métis, or Inuit)?
